

JULIAN TREVELYAN

Julian Trevelyan is a British musician. In 2021 he won the Second, Audience and Mozart prizes at the Concours Géza Anda in Zurich. In 2015 at the age of 16, he was the top prize winner, and youngest ever laureate at the Concours Marguerite Long in Paris. He has also won laureates at the Ile de France (F), Dudley (UK), Dumortier (B) and Kissinger (D) competitions.

He has studied at the École Normale Alfred Cortot with Rena Shereshevskaya, sponsored by Patrick Masure. From 2021 he is Rena's assistant, and replaces her in lessons. He also studied composition there and is composer in residence with Ensemble Dynamique. He is an Alumnus of the Lieven International Piano Foundation, in the UK he is supported by Talent Unlimited.

He has also studied with Christopher Elton, Elizabeth Altman and Rita Wagner. He studied musicology at Oxford University. He also has a degree in Geology.

He leads a string quartet, plays historical instruments and is part of a mandarin a capella choir. In his spare time, he enjoys reading, cooking and sports. He currently lives in Paris and speaks French, German and Italian.

www.juliantrevelyan.co.uk | reinhard@artistcoordination.com